Home: CV Firebirds vs. Away: BAK Condors

Date: Dec 19, 2025 7:00PM PST

Pre-Game

The Condors are tied with the Silver Knights and Gulls with 27 points in the Pacific. 8 points behind the division leading Eagles and 4 points behind the Firebirds. They are 4-4-2-0 in the last 10 games. Quinn Hutson has been recalled to the Oilers who have been playing excellent lately. The Oilers have made a strong push up the NHL Pacific standings. Seth Griffith continues to lead the team on the offense and one of the points leaders in the AHL. Atro Leppanen leads the team defense in his first year in the AHL. The power play is near the top of the AHL, but the overall team +/- is negative 25 games into the season. They are coming off a shutout loss to the Reign on Wednesday.

The Firebirds are showing true grit as they play without a few of their players. The win on Wednesday against the Barracuda has them 4 points from the division leading Eagles. The team +/- has turned positive for offense and defense from being a deep negative to start the season. Jagger Firkus and Logan Morrison lead the team in points, but it is a team contribution up and down the line up that has been getting the job done. Timely goal tending has also been important to go 7-2-1-0 in the last 10 games.

Head-to-Head

The historical record between these teams is close. This season is no different. The Condors are 2-1-0-0 to the Firebirds 1-1-1-0. The Condors won the first game in overtime, but the next two games ended 6-3 for each team. They play tonight in Coachella Valley and then play tomorrow night in Bakersfield before the Christmas break. On paper, the Firebirds should have the edge, but anything goes.

Tonight is the Teddy Bear toss game. Expect to see Teddy Bears raining down when the Firebirds score the first goal.

1st Period

The Firebirds got off to a fast start. Ian McKinnon decided to drop the gloves with Josh Brown with in the first 2 minutes. 30 seconds later Oscar Fisker Molgaard scored the Teddy Bear toss goal with assist from John Hayden and Tyson Jugnauth. After the cleanup was completed, it was the Condors taking over the period with 3 straight goals in a row.

2nd Period

A penalty filed period. A little bit of hooking and some roughing. With 4 minutes to go, Jager Firkus took a shot at the goal from the half wall that Matt Tomkins didn't see. The puck fell over his shoulder and over the goal line. The ice then tilted to the Firebirds. The Condors got called on a penalty. 16 seconds into the penalty, a nice movement of the puck found Eduard Sale in the bumper firing it home to tie the game.

3rd Period

A rough period for the Firebirds who got the only penalties in the period. The second penalty led to a Condors goal. To add insult to injury, a couple Firebirds had to leave the ice with injury a few minutes after the goal. Things were not looking to go the Firebirds way until Logan Morrison tied the game with 7 minutes left in the period. Neither team could generate offense to end the game in regulation.

OT

The Firebirds won the opening faceoff. With even with control of the puck, they could get a shot on goal. When the Condors got the puck, they made some shots and at one point had a 2 on 1, but were called for offsides. The Condors had the puck in the o-zone, and the perimeter skating didn't look threatening until it did. Roby Järventie found the back of the net to win the game in over time.

Post-Game

The Condors are one of the tops on power play in the AHL. Their strategy was to check hard, get the Firebirds to take cheap penalties, and take advantage of on-ice officials who are learning their craft to make sloppy calls. A couple Firebirds had their sticks go flying in the air with slashing and neither official saw it. The strategy worked to steal 2 points. The Firebirds did take some of the blame for going to sleep after the opening goal to allow the Condors to score 3 in a row. Both teams play tomorrow in Bakersfield.

Unofficial stats:

The following are unofficial statistics. The AHL doesn't show faceoff wins, icing, or offsides on the score sheet. I am tracking this on my own so there is a margin of error.

Icing	1 st	2 nd	3 rd	OT	Total
Condors	0	2	0	0
Firebirds	4	0	1	0

Offsides	1 st	2 nd	3 rd	OT	Total
Condors	1	1	0	1	3

ES – Even Strength

PP – Power Play

PK – Penalty Kill

Interesting Firebirds stats so far:

- 4 games in row (12 periods) that the team never trailed in regulation.
- 2 different Firebirds got a hat-trick on back-to-back nights: Jagger Firkus (vs. BAK 11/15/25) and Jacob Melanson (vs ABB 11/16/25)
- Two goalies have an assist in the season. Kokko has 2 assists.
- The line of J.R., Avon, Logan Morrison, and Jagger Firkus scored at least one goal 9 games in a row (11/7/25-11/28/25).
- Nikke Kokko got his first regular season shutout. (vs. Gulls 5 – 0 11/28/25).
- 12 games streak where the Firebirds have scored 3 goals in a game (Started vs Col 11/5/25 – 12/6/25).
